

COMMUNICATIONS AND PROGRAMS COORDINATOR JULEA JUAREZ

As the Communications and Programs Coordinator (CPC), Julea is responsible for ensuring all internal and external communications from the Foundation are deployed in a consistent and professional manner. In addition, the CPC works with the Program Officers for the Spinal Cord Injury Research on the Translational Spectrum (SCIRTS), Psychosocial Research/Spinal Cord Injury Medicine Fellowships (PSR/SCIMF) and Creating Opportunity & Independence/Neilsen Scholarship Program (CO&I/NSP) portfolios and Grants Management office to facilitate program announcements and grant opportunities.

Julea joins the Foundation with a background in the non-profit independent school setting overseeing events and alumni relations as well as maintaining an integral role in social media, communications and fundraising. Julea received her Bachelor of Science in Business Marketing from California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, CA.

