

PROGRAM OFFICER

JANE OTTO

Jane Otto is Program Officer for the Creating Opportunity & Independence (CO&I) portfolio. Jane works closely with the CO&I Review Board to help support and develop and/or augment innovative programs that will impact the lives of individuals living with spinal cord injury.

Jane brings more than 30 years of experience in the non-profit sector with expertise in fundraising, strategic planning, board development, communications, marketing and branding. Her diverse skill set includes leadership positions with notable organizations such as The Rockefeller University where she served under four Nobel Laureates, and non-profit management in the performing arts, independent schools, colleges and universities.

Jane holds a B.A. from the University of Utah and has served as an adjunct faculty member at New York University.

